Tools and Wisdom for Personal and Professional Growth

I value it among the few “best ever” events I have attended in 30 years of professional life. Thank you.

- Dr Phyllis Mast
(Psychologist)

I thought it was awesome. Great speakers, well organized and planned, smoothly run, high energy. It was everything I expected and more.

- Mark Broder
(Manager)

Thank you and your team for a FANTASTIC Conference. The speakers were World Class and I have gained a lot that will assist me personally, professionally and spiritually. It is always rejuvenating to be in the company of like minded/hearted people who really make a difference.

4th Annual Emotional Intelligence Conference, Orlando, January 2004

The Inside Path to Creating and Sustaining Change

Emotional intelligence practitioners in business, education, community development, and health care build transformational capacity using the latest tools in emotional intelligence. Delegates walk away with current best-practice tools and research to implement emotional intelligence programs focused on creating and sustaining change:

- Leading Change: Learn how to use EI to create the courage to lead and the trust to follow.
- Sustaining Change: Discover the keys to a culture of continuous learning.
- Living Change: Identify best-practice for EQ advocates and create integrity in our field.

There is no other event that brings together this breadth and depth of expertise. The speakers list reads like a “who’s who” of emotional intelligence experts -- with over 40 books and hundreds of articles to their credit. NexusEQ is the premier event in the field. Speakers include Cooper, McKee, Jensen, Elias, Salovey, Orioli, Cryer, Freedman, Pawliw-Fry (see reverse or the web site for more!)

Delegates: EQ Practitioners

This is an “advanced conference” for people working in the field using emotional intelligence. Delegates include consultants, educators, coaches, managers, psychologists, researchers, and trainers from all around the world.

Vision: A Living Lab for EQ Learning

NexusEQ Conferences are the premier forum for turning emotional intelligence research into practice – bringing excellence and heart to education, business, and health care. Not just “about” EQ, NexusEQ is an emotionally intelligent learning experience. The conference is part of an ongoing process of building awareness and skills for using emotional intelligence tools to address critical problems in schools, companies, families, and communities.

Registration

Dates: January 15-17, 2004

Take Away...

Acquire strategies and techniques for creating a successful change initiative.

Learn new research, practices, and lessons to implement in your organization.

Build the case for EQ with real examples of the benefits of implementing programs.

Connect with other practitioners, influencers, and decision-makers.

Increase your own EQ for personal and professional success.

Gain insight on how to conduct an emotionally intelligent learning event.
